Usdaw Speaking Up For Parents & Carers

Usdaw reps and officials are working hard to win a better deal at work for parents, carers and grandparents.

They really are making a difference.

In many of our agreements we have negotiated:

-  Better paid maternity, paternity and adoption leave.
-  The right for caring commitments to be taken into account in decisions about hours of work.
-  Additional support for foster and adoptive parents.

If you are a parent or carer being in the Union makes a lot of sense.

I support Usdaw's campaign to lobby Government to give ALL workers family and carer friendly rights at work from day one of employment.

Usdaw needs the Government to do more to support working parents and carers by improving family friendly rights that offer real choices when it comes to juggling work with family life.
